For Immediate Release:

What's in your Hydro? Come race with us!

Two groups with a rich history in Seattle join this year to make the Seafair Hydroplane races something to remember. William "Billy the Kid" Schumacher, the new owner of the U-37 will watch from the pits as Driver Jean Theoret skippers the "ship" under the watchful eyes of Captain Kidd "Junior" Odman and the Seattle Seafair Pirates.

The Seattle Seafair Pirates have laid claim to the U-37 hydroplane known as Miss Beacon Plumbing (her Title Sponsor in Washington State). In addition, the U-37 will bear the logo of the Seafair Pirates. The Seafair Pirates have encouraged the U-37 Team to become part of their "crew" or suffer retribution at the hands of these scurvy sea dogs.

The U-37 Hydroplane will proudly fly the Jolly Roger along with the name of the Seafair Pirates as she attempts to win the Chevrolet Cup with the Seafair Pirates "Crew" cheering them on from the pits. This should be one of the most exciting races as "hometown favorites" the Seattle Seafair Pirates claim an Unlimited Hydroplane.

Beware – The Seafair Pirates will be in the pits on Saturday August 5 from 12:30 – 2 PM and will swarm the pits all day on Sunday, August 6 to defend our "ship" from any battle scars and protect our mates down to the last crewmember.
